

STUDENT INTERNSHIP APPLICATION

Please fill out the entire application below and submit it to the M.A.T. office.

All applications must include the following:

- 1) Completed MAT Program Application
- 2) Official transcripts of all college work (you must have an overall GPA of 2.7 or better)
- 3) Two (2) Letters of Professional Recommendation (Professional Recommendation letters can come from current or past - employer, professors or community/volunteer organization, no family or friends)
- 4) Interns Resume

Application Steps:

- 1) Submit your completed application with all required information. Please try to send in one packet. If university requires to mail transcripts directly, that is okay. But application, recommendation letters and resume should come together.
- 2) MAT internship committee will review all applications.
- 3) If you are selected for an interview, we will contact you via email with your scheduled interview time. * Please note all interns are interviewed on Saturday, (dates listed below for each session) at a LA based agency. Plan to bring samples of any creative or marketing work you have done to the interview.
